Sir:

REQUEST FOR REFUND

It is respectfully requested that the undersigned's deposit account be credited $1,000 in regard to this case on the basis of the following:

This application was filed on December 27, 2004 claiming small entity status. As filed, the application included 20 extra claims so that, in addition to the small entity filing fees ($500), an extra claims fee of $500 was paid (see attached copy of Filing Request – note small entity claim on page 2 as indicated in the attached copy and the corresponding reduction in one half of the fees due).

Due to Patent Office error, the small entity claim was not noted and the fees paid were considered solely to be the filing fees and not to include any extra claims fees. Thus, applicant's deposit account was charged $1,000 on or about June 21, 2005 (copy of PTO fee records sheet attached). Because this application was filed claiming small entity status, all required fees were paid with this application and no charge should have been made to the undersigned's deposit account. Therefore, a refund of $1,000 to the undersigned's deposit account is in order.
